

Test Your Knowledge of Sessions 1 & 2!

Write the number of each concept found in the side columns next to its match in the middle column.

	eschatology
	Psalm 19
1 The Scripture was given by God to men who understood His divine message and recorded it in their own way	praxis	11 Titles of Scripture and introductions to Scripture found within the Bible
2 How we know which values and ethics we should hold	human inspiration	12 Lacking an epistemology, etiology, and eschatology dictation	13 Necessary and valid when establishing ultimate authority circular reasoning
3 In contrast to general revelation, speaks with detail of the triune God who created everything from nothing and offers salvation in His Son	all Scripture is God-breathed	14 The ideas of Scripture are from God, but the details of Scripture may or may not be inspired verbal plenary inspiration general inspiration
4 How to act in accordance with our values and ethics	confirmatory evidence of inspiration, not proof	15 The heavens declare the glory of God
	general revelation
	axiology	16 What the future looks like, and how we will get there 5 God used men to write precisely what He spoke to them, free of any human interference	deductive proofs of inspiration	17 Stands alone as true, authoritative and sufficient a weakness in the worldview of many evangelicals	18 Inspiration occurs as Scripture is taken in by the reader
6 Derived inspiration; does not diminish the authority of the Bible in your possession	existential inspiration
7 pasa graphē theopneustos	elements of a complete worldview	19 Reveals only God's power and righteousness, enough to convict every human special revelation
8 How we know what we know: truth, facts, and justified beliefs	epistemology	20 Epistemology, etiology, eschatology, axiology, praxis translation
9 God energized and influenced the men who wrote the Scriptures	the Bible	21 How we got here: the reasons why things are the way they are
10 Archaeological data, philosophical issues & fulfilled prophecy	etiology	